Private Events

At Ranch Steakhouse we pride ourselves in providing only the finest in wine, food and guest services. We have an assortment of banquet spaces because our guests know that whether you're in a party of 4 or 60, you can expect the same quality food and hospitality we've staked our reputation on. From wedding rehearsals to sales seminars, to cocktail or football parties, we've created customized menus to fit every occasion.

When booking your event you will be asked a number of crucial questions. This will also offer you the opportunity to ask any questions and give us any specific guests' needs. We will then have you sign a contract providing us with the details of your event. This contract is designed to provide you with guidelines and protect both parties. Until your contract has been signed and received, any room bookings are considered "tentative". The standard of service at Ranch cannot be compromised due to issues governing the "contractor". For this reason we have provided our event planners to explain the requirements, limitations of our menu and services to ensure your event's success.

In order to provide your guests with optimal service and food quality, we request that open menu parties be limited to 20 guests or less Sunday –Thursday, and 14 or less Friday and Saturday. We also offer a number of "set menus" to help meet your party's individual needs.

Thank you for inquiring with Ranch Steakhouse and we look forward to the opportunity to provide you and your guests with great food, excellent service and hospitality...unbridled.
